OTHER CLUBS TO VISIT NARBERTH

Ardmore and Bala-Cynwyd to Attend Community Club Meeting.

COMING NEXT TUESDAY

The regular meeting of the Women's Community Club on Tuesday, March 30, is to be a club institute at which the Women's Club of Ardmore and the Women's Club of Bala-Cynwyd will be guests. The usual business session will be omitted and the whole afternoon given up to the program. Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, Jr., chairman of the Montgomery County Federation, will conduct a forum, during which several presidents of neighboring clubs will speak.

Of especial interest to the Narberth club will be a talk by Mrs. Leach, president of the Oak Lane club, on the financing of their clubhouse, which is considered almost ideal in every way. A variety of musical numbers will be contributed by members of the three clubs participating in the institute.

This is an unusual opportunity for the discussion of problems common to all clubs and for making the acquaintance of our neighbors on the east and west. Since train schedules bring many of our guests as early as 2:15 o'clock, the meeting will be called to order promptly at 2:30.

Don't forget the hospitality committee's sale in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A., April 2 and 3. There will be flowers on sale Friday evening. Flowers and food on Saturday "as long as they last."

The nominating committee urges all club members to send in their preferential ballots before March 30. This is too important a matter to leave to 25 or 50 per cent. of the membership to decide.

The card party at Mrs. Bruce Carey's last Friday was quite as successful as the earlier ones in the series. After a lunch of salad, sandwiches and coffee, 14 tables were filled with players. The first prize in bridge went to Mrs. C. A. Farmer, the first in five hundred to Mrs. McGuffin. Mrs. Carey was assisted by Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, her mother, Mrs. Harry Massey, and Mrs. Charles Carson.

All ye good "fans" tune in on WPI (Strawbridge & Clothier) at 3 P. M. on Thursday, April 1, and hear the program broadcast by the Narberth Community Club. It will be a good one. If you want to know more, try the radio on Thursday.

UNION MEETINGS DURING HOLY WEEK

Union Communion Service Also Is Planned.

Meetings under the auspices of the Baptist Lutheran, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches are being planned as follows:

Monday, March 29, in the Lutheran Church, with sermon by Rev. R. E. Keighton; Tuesday, March 30, in the Baptist Church, with sermon by Rev. M. E. McLinn; Wednesday, March 31, in the Methodist Church, with sermon by Rev. John Van Ness.

A very unique and unusual event will take place in Narberth next Thursday evening. We have never had anything quite like it ever before. It is the union communion service announced by our Protestant churches, where all Christians of whatever name or creed are invited to celebrate together the sacrament of our Lord's Supper on the anniversary evening of the institution of this memorable feast. The meeting will be held in the beautiful new auditorium of the Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock.

ANNIVERSARY

The Narberth Coal and Building Material Company will duly celebrate their fourth anniversary as a Narberth concern next Wednesday.

As the first step in the celebration, the company has purchased a new three-ton truck, making the eighth in their fleet. Ralph S. Dunne, the president, remarked this week that the concern had gone through three coal strikes in their four years of business.

NEW NARBERTH STORAGE BUILDING SOON FINISHED AT SAVING OF $2000

Trucks, Steam Roller and Street Tools Will Be Housed in New Structure.

Completion of the Borough's new storage building is promised next week. The new structure is located on lower Haverford avenue, at the southeast corner of the playground tract.

The building is a one-story affair, 62 x 26 1/2 feet, with a cellar. It is of building block construction, covered with plaster, and makes an attractive structure, particularly in view of its very utilitarian nature.

The storage building has a terra cotta coping, a tin roof and is of fireproof construction throughout. Doors and windows are of steel frames and wire glass; the ceiling is corrugated and the doors are lined with tin.

There is storage space for five cars, a men's room with nine lockers, tool room, toilet, and concrete cellar. The main floor is of cement with two drains. Hot water heat has been installed, modern plumbing and electric lighting.

Storage space is now available for the borough's two motor trucks, steam roller, road tools, service car, material belonging to the recreation field and other property which may be acquired in the future.

This important addition to Narberth's governmental property was built entirely under the direction of the Highway Committee. George B. Supplee, Street Commissioner, supervised the work, thereby saving the taxpayers $2000 on the basis of the two sets of bids received by Council. He used borough employees in odd times wherever possible, employed a supervising carpenter, bought all materials and used his extensive knowledge of plumbing to save money on that end.

When the revised bids were opened by Council several months ago it was found that a contractor would charge about $7000 for the work. This was more than had been planned for, and Council rejected all bids. Then Mr. Supplee spoke up, stating that he could put up the building at a saving of at least a thousand dollars. The matter was discussed at length, and he was finally given carte blanche to go ahead with the work.

The plan has worked out even better than Mr. Supplee promised. After all expenses are paid, he states that the work will cost less than $5000—a clear saving of $2000. The carpentry work was contracted for by Finney and Hickey, of Ardmore; Vincent Martinelli did the stone, brick and coping work; John A. Miller, the roofing. Lumber was bought from Smedley and Mehl; millwork from the Conshohocken Millwork Co.; paint and hardware from E. J. Lyons. Plumbing, heating, painting, cement work and grading were all done by borough forces.

WORKING HARD ON FUND AS MOVING DAY NEARS

$200 Yet to Go to Finish Equipment Budget.

One of the "show places" of Narberth of the very near future is going to be the Narberth Community Library installed in its new quarters in the new Community Building.

If you doubt one letter of that statement, the next time you are passing along Windsor avenue, stop at the playground and take a peek in the new library quarters in the center wing of the Community Building. Note the fine large Colonial fireplace in the center of the room. Visualize the walls lined with books, the reading tables covered with magazines, the librarians busy at their desks and sorting and arranging books in the shelves, and, finally, the boys and girls and the men and women of Narberth selecting from those shelves the books that will help them in studies, entertain them with stories of romance and adventure, and enlighten them with the words of knowledge.

And as you visualize that picture—that picture which is soon to become a reality—remember that one of the chief factors in making the new home of the library a place of which every resident may well be proud, is the library equipment fund. For it is this fund that will make possible the necessary new shelving, etc., required to equip the library proper in keeping with the building itself.

But the fund still needs contributions. It is still just about $200 short of the required $1000. Contributions are entirely voluntary and checks should be made payable to Thomas C. Trotter, Jr., treasurer, and mailed to Mr. Trotter at his residence at No. 209 Woodside avenue, Narberth, Pa. The life membership fee is $25 and the yearly membership $1. Every $10 contributed to the fund pays for one new shelf.

During the past week the following new memberships were received:

New Life Member
Allan J. Smith $25.00
New Yearly Members
Dr. Leroy A. King 1.00
Mrs. Leroy A. King 1.00
Previously acknowledged .. 781.28

Total received to date $808.28

NEW MANAGER

F. W. E. Stedem, of Montgomery avenue, has been appointed manager of Chris' Koch's drug store on Haverford avenue.

Mr. Stedem, a graduate pharmacist and former chemical manufacturer, is well known in the borough.

DETAILS OF COMING SCOUT AFFAIR ANNOUNCED

Two-Day Entertainment at School to Be Given.

April 16 and 17 will be memorable days in the annals of Narberth, according to the plans of the Boy Scouts, which were finally completed at their last regular meeting in the Cabin.

The "big show" will be given on those dates in the public school auditorium. As previously announced in Our Town, this year's affair will take the form of a motion picture entertainment. Interspersed among the pictures will be specialties by the Boy Scouts, with a formal three-minute address by one of their number whose name will be announced at the first meeting in April.

Friday, April 16, has been set aside more particularly for the younger folks of the borough. The Saturday's "performance" will be concluded at 10 o'clock, when those present will adjourn to the "gym" floor and indulge in two hours of dancing. A special orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

Tickets for both evenings are now being printed. They will be distributed to the Scouts, who will be the only persons authorized to make the sales.

The proceeds from the entertainment will be used next summer in defraying the expenses of the Scouts on their annual outing at Camp Delmont.

Budget Not Yet Raised.

Last reports of the treasury of the Fathers' Association show the 1926 budget but three-quarters completed. Not quite 10 per cent. of those to whom letters were addressed on the subject have responded.

Since the last statement was made public, the following citizens have sent in contributions, ranging from one cent to $10: William J. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Carl B. Metzger, F. T. Van Auken, D. W. Quick and Horace E. Ruch.

Today 25 Scouts are being taken on a hike over the hills surrounding the borough, acting under sealed orders which were handed to the patrol leaders on leaving the Cabin. They were instructed not to open them until after passing out of the borough. A treasure hunt will be conducted at the "wind up" of the hike, when suitable prizes will be awarded.

TO REBUILD STREET

Work on the resurfacing of Narberth avenue will be started some time next week, according to an announcement by the borough Highway Department.

METHODISTS MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

Both Teams Capture Bowling Honors in Interchurch League.

SEASON IS COMPLETED

The Inter-Church Bowling League closed a highly successful season last Monday night when the Methodist Meteors, winners of the second half, met the Baptist Battlers, winners of the first half, in the playoff for the championship. The Methodists won all three games, two by fairly close scores and one by a decisive margin, thereby annexing the season's honors for the best team.

As a matter of fact, the two Methodist teams between them made a clean sweep of all the honors. Elmer Jenkins, of the Methodist Meteors, made the highest individual score of the season with his recent mark of 233. In the same match about two weeks ago he also achieved the season's highest three-game score of 630. Mr. Jenkins is thus the proud possessor of two of the league's beautiful loving cups.

In order to further demonstrate the superiority of the Wesleyan followers, W. J. Bailey, of the Methodist Marathons, annexed the season's high individual average with a score of 159, so the season ended with all four loving cups reposing in the trophy room at the corner of Essex and Price avenues.

The other teams have proposed an amendment to the rules that in the future no single church shall be allowed to win more than three of the four prizes.

Other individual averages deserving mention are:

El. Jenkins, Methodist Meteors, 157.3
Humphries, Lutheran Lions, 154.2
W. D. Smedley, Baptist Battlers, 151.5
C. R. Reger, Methodist Meteors, 150.5

The following gentlemen also scored very good averages, but did not compete in enough games to be eligible for the honors under the league rules:

Alberts, Lutheran Lions, 169.3
Little, Presbyterian Pilots, 162.6
Soliday, Baptist Boosters, 150.2
The following are entitled to honorable mention for achieving three-game scores of 500 or better in various matches. Several had three or four such scores, but their highest score only is given:

El. Jenkins, Meth. Meteors, .. 630
Bailey, Meth. Marathons, 547
C. R. Reger, Meth. Meteors, ... 544
Alberts, Luth. Lins, 543
Little, Pres. Pilots, 532
W. D. Smedley, Bap. Battlers, .. 510
Humphries, Luth. Lions, 507
Robertson, Luth. Lions, 500

The following are entitled to mention for scores of 200 and over:

El. Jenkins, Meth. Meteors, 233, 230
Little, Pres. Pilots, 217, 200
W. D. Smedley, Bap. Battlers, 215
Humphries, Luth. Lions, 209
Alberts, Luth. Lions, 201
C. R. Reger, Meth. Meteors, ... 201
Keim, Bap. Battlers, 200

The standing of the teams for the second half follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Meth. Meteors	14	4	.78
Meth. Marathons	11	7	.61
Luth. Lions	9	6	.60
Bap. Battlers	8	7	.53
Pres. Pilots	8	10	.44
Bap. Boosters	7	11	.38
Pres. Pep Boys	0	12	.00

SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, a familiar speaker at Lower Merion, talked to the students at assembly last Thursday morning. He told of the value of personal sacrifice.

"Everything passed down to us from bygone generations which afford happiness and joy have come to us through the personal sacrifices and sufferings of many individuals," he said. He made a plea for the continuation of that spirit.

Attention was called this week by Principal Pennypacker to the college board examinations which come in June. He gave warning in order that pupils who wish to take them might be given plenty of time to prepare.

Announcement was also made of the eight scholarships given annually to L. M. H. S.

EASTER VACATION

Pupils in the Lower Merion public schools will be given a five-day Easter vacation. The holidays will begin Thursday and continue until Tuesday of the following week.

In addition to this the students will get a one-day vacation today. This is education week and in connection with this teachers will spend Friday visiting in other schools.

Most of the private schools and academies in the township will begin their Easter vacations early next week. Most of the colleges of the vicinity begin their holidays with the close of classes on Wednesday.

ST. MARGARET'S THESPIANS SOON TO GO ON BOARDS

Ambitious Reporter Secures Information on Event.

Closely guarded as the effort is to keep the information from the public regarding "What For Pinafore?" the coming presentation of St. Margaret's Minstrels, the lounge in the lobby has come across a few choice bits which indicate beyond peradventure that this bounding borough has a gorgeous treat in store for it on the eventful April nights when this mammoth masterpiece bursts forth in all its glory.

For instance, on a booming midnight hour, when all the world was supposed to sleep, two tired thespians held long converse on Narberth bridge, knowing not at all that in the quiet of the budding tomorrow their dulcet voices reached to the inner recesses of Our Town's sanctum, where the weary scribe still plied his harrowing way.

Hence it is, and no doubt about it, that the announcement may be made that the program is to include one grand duet about Mary Ann or some other of their lady friends by no less than John J. Kelly and Joseph L. Kelley. Great trepidation entered here as to the name to print first, knowing full well the temperamental flings of artistic genius, but as it happens that the actor with the longer name also has the longest legs, it is hoped he will be content to wait longer for his name to appear.

Music lovers will at once recognize the supreme importance of this extraordinary offering, as it will be the first occasion on record when these two distinguished singers will contrast by deadly parallel the respective merits of the Hornbrannen and Hoskinsky methods.

Mr. Kelly's renditions are well known for their subtle charm and for the fact that his voice goes right down through the hall, out the door and back through the stage through the rear entrance without any appreciable effort on his part, whilst Mr. Kelley's strong forte consists in laying his ineffably sweet notes flat on the floor, where they assemble themselves in an irresistible coordination, with the result that they ultimately overwhelm the audience and impel the most tender strains of mercy. It should not be thought, however, that this procedure bears any similarity to a feline serenade, because it is quite unlike anything of the kind, but comparison may be had, it is said, by reference to the earliest efforts of the saxophone students, if you know what we mean.

Unique and grandiose as this feature is, the fact nevertheless remains that it is only one item in a superb list, and once again it is urged that you make sure of your tickets for one or the other of the two big evenings, April 14 and 15, at St. Margaret's Hall.

HEARING ON TRAFFIC

With traffic on Haverford avenue rapidly reaching the point where conditions are hopeless, steps are under way for an intensive study of the problem.

Co-operating with Chief of Police James I. Donaghy, Burgess Henry A. Frye will soon call a meeting in order to hold a hearing on the problem. This will be done as soon as Captain Donaghy's physical condition permits him to attend.

With parking conditions crowded on Haverford avenue, many cars have been using adjacent streets as parking places. Residents on Essex, Forrest and Narberth avenues have entered complaint that their homes are not business places and that they object to the parking of cars before their houses.

Plans are also under way for re-routing of the bus line so as to relieve the congestion in the main business street.

TO SEND NINTH GRADE TO L. M.

Three Rooms to Be Available by New Arrangement Planned.

TOWNSHIP WON'T SWAP

The Narberth School Board, at its meeting last Friday night, voted to send the ninth grade to the Lower Merion Junior High School next year. This will mean that the upper four grades of Narberth students will attend the Ardmore institution.

By so doing, two or three class rooms will be released. This will give ample space for the two remaining grades of the Junior High School and will also provide space for the new Manual Training Department.

The sending of the ninth grade to Lower Merion will put off the necessity of building a new structure for some years, and may give enough relief to the crowding so that the board will never have to build.

The tuition will be partly compensated for by a reduction in the faculty of several teachers. The savings in interest and sinking fund charges on a building loan would be much more than the tuition will cost.

be feasible to transfer the ninth grade children from Narberth to our Junior High School under the same conditions as now obtain in the cases of those in the Senior High School. The Narberth schools are crowded, and the board there must either erect portable buildings, increase the tax rate abnormally and build, or transfer this group to Lower Merion. There will be not more than 60 in a class. I recommend that this privilege be granted in case the Narberth board desires to make the change, as it will be in the interest of the children and will not overcrowd our Junior High School.

"The sophomore class next year will be very large, as approximately 200 will be transferred from our Junior High School and probably 60 from Narberth. We can handle

Principal George H. Wilson and the Lower Merion authorities agree that the new plan will be an improvement from the educational standpoint. It is considered better to make the change from the borough schools to the township at the ninth grade than at the grade ahead, as it makes adjustment to the high school easier.

Downs Approves.

CRANE DRUG STORE MOVES NEXT WEEK

Takes Enlarged Quarters in New Building.

Another important business change in Narberth will take place next Saturday, when Claude H. Crane will open his new drug store at the northwest corner of Haverford and Narberth avenues.

Mr. Crane's drug store is now located at the station. Moving will start next Monday and the new store will be opened Saturday, with a general invitation extended to residents to inspect it.

The Crane Drug Store was established three years ago and has grown rapidly. Owned some years ago by William F. J. Fiedler, it was later purchased by T. W. Smith. At his death it was taken over by the Main Line Drug Stores of Ardmore, headed by Charles S. Powell. Mr. Crane bought the store in 1923. He and Mrs. Crane took up their residence in Narberth a year later at No. 524 Essex avenue.

The owner of the store is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy. Before coming to Narberth he was manager of Michael's Drug Store, Logan.

His assistants at the store include Paul Shea, a local man and also a graduate of the Philadelphia college. He is prescription clerk. Joe Kenney has been clerk at the store since Mr. Crane started the business. A delivery man and a general store assistant complete the staff.

On the opening day next Saturday a gift package will be presented to those who inspect the new quarters. In addition a trial brick of Supplee ice cream will be given.

Narberth Gains

A pleasing example of public service is seen in the approaching completion of the borough storage building.

George B. Suplee, street commissioner, by his willingness to shoulder extra responsibility, has saved $2000 for the taxpayers of Narberth. That represents a half mill of taxes saved in one item.

Work of this kind is usually done by the letting of a contract to the lowest bidder, with none of the construction responsibility falling on a town employee. That is the easy course, but it is often expensive.

Mr. Suplee's titles are many. He is involved in many lines of borough work, but despite his imposing list of positions his services to the taxpayers cost but $3300 a year. By one piece of extra work, and a commendable show of pride in his jobs, Mr. Suplee has turned back almost two-thirds of his salary into the treasury of Narberth.

Rarely do we find "political" officeholders who labor for pride in accomplishment rather than for financial gain. The tendency is to sidestep extra duties, not to seek them.

There was a laugh in Council when Mr. Suplee said, "I'll build the storage building." Certainly the two principal jobs of building inspector and street commissioner were enough for one man to tackle. But the job is done, and with much profit to the borough.

George Suplee is too busy to get a swelled head. He is too much interested in the tasks which fall to him many times a day to seek praise. But an outstanding example of intelligent public service like this should not be let go by with but a passing comment.

THE UNION MEETINGS

To the Editor of Our Town:

A fine spirit of church fellowship is shown in the proposed union communion service for next Thursday evening. It has been often remarked that our various union meetings during the year and the union twilight meetings during the summer are witnesses of a delightful Christian fellowship among our churches. But this communion service will be quite unique in our history and is but another evidence of the comradeship, the co-operation and the unity of service among our churches. It is a visible token of our stand together against the forces of evil and for the furtherance of the rule of righteousness. Every professing Christian, whatever may be the church affiliations, is cordially invited to meet in the Presbyterian Church next Thursday evening, that we may all commune together and with our Blessed Lord, in this solemn sacrament, on the anniversary of its institution. It would hearten us for our tasks should every professed follower of our Saviour in this entire community join with us in this important service.

CITIZENSHIP SCHOOL

The Pennsylvania League of Women Voters has scheduled a Citizenship School, three days of intensive study, for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 6, 7 and 8. These meetings will be held in the League House, 1725 Spruce street; the afternoon meetings at 2.30 and evening meetings at 8 o'clock.

The course will consist of six lectures, each one to be followed by an open forum, and the lecturers will be some of Philadelphia's ablest lawyers and judges.

Tickets (transferable) for the whole course are only one dollar and may be obtained of Mrs. Batchelor, 105 Chestnut avenue. The Hon. Roland Morris, Deputy Attorney General Schnader, Judge J. William Morris, Prof. Smith, of Bryn Mawr; Judge Lewis and Mr. Ira Williams, of the Philadelphia Bar, will talk on subjects of especial interest to citizens at this time.

TENNIS ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL MEETING

All Officers Re-Elected—After New Members.

The annual meeting of the Narberth Tennis Association was held in the Narberth National Bank Building on Thursday evening, March 18, and the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year:

W. D. R. Evans, president.
H. C. Fenno, vice president.
A. C. Staples, treasurer.
H. R. Paige, secretary.

A resolution was passed expressing regret at the death of August J. Loos, a member of the club.

Now that the tennis season is in sight, we will probably be digging out the old equipment and arranging for the replacement of the moth-eaten paraphernalia preparatory to an early start with our favorite exercise and pastime. That's that.

We would like to increase the membership considerably and hope that the present members will please take note and get busy with your friends and neighbors. It is not necessary, however, for anyone to wait to be approached by a member of the club, but this is an invitation to join, and that means you. Application blanks may be had—any number of them you want—by getting in touch with one of the above officers, or any member of the club whom you happen to know, who will willingly give you any information you desire concerning the dues, etc.

DIRECTORS DINE

The officers and directors of the Narberth Building and Loan and the American Legion Building and Loan Associations held their annual joint dinner Wednesday evening at the Manufacturers' Club.

After an informal dinner the two groups attended a show in town.

SCHOOL NEWS

Last Friday the Camp Fire Girls had charge of the assembly program. Several Camp Fire songs were sung, followed by an eccentric dance by Mary Megee and Eleanor Michaelson. The Alphabet Tragedy, a humorous playlet, was presented. The characters were:

QT, the heroine, E. Terry.
NTC, her lover, K. Trowbridge.
AB, the rejected lover, M. Baughman.

KT, the maid, B. Otto.
MA, the mother, K. Aungst.
PA, the father, B. Bowman.
MT, a friend of AB, C. Irwin.
MD, the doctor, M. Robertson.

After this Betty Robb sang a solo and three of the girls gave talks on Camp Fire.

We wish to correct a mistake made last week about our Easter vacation. It will be from April 1 to April 5 inclusive.

The Narberth Junior High School played a volleyball game with Norristown Junior High on Thursday, March 18. The score was 15-3, 15-6, 15-12 in favor of Narberth.

This week the school doctor is examining the girls and boys throughout the entire school.

On Tuesday, March 23, the seventh and ninth grade girls played the last girls' volleyball game of the season. The ninth grade won by the score of 15-1 and 15-6. The Freshman girls also won the championship this year, having won five games and lost only one. The eighth grade is next, having won three games, and the seventh is third with one game to its credit.

On Thursday of last week the eighth and ninth grade boys played a volleyball game. The ninth grade won, 2-0.

The Narberth Junior High School baseball team started regular practice on Tuesday. About 30 candidates reported and things look bright for the team.

Summer school will be conducted by Lower Merion on the same lines as last year. Each summer school pupil will be permitted to take two subjects and no more and must attend throughout the school term. Narberth pupils who have

BOARD VOTES TO SEND
NINTH GRADE TO L. M.

Schools S. E. Downs, of Lower Merion, said:

"Mr. Wilson, principal of the Narberth schools, and Mr. Miller, president of the board, called recently to inquire whether it would be this group easily, however, when the addition to the Senior High School is completed. Work was started on the extensions Tuesday, and we hope that rapid progress will be made now that the contracts have been signed."

South Side Hopes Dashed.

All hopes for an arrangement whereby Narberth children on the south side might be sent to the new Merion school were dashed this week by a complete refusal on the part of the township authorities to enter into any such plan.

They will not take any further outside students on a tuition basis, nor will they consider a "swap." This latter plan involved an exchange, whereby township pupils living near the Narberth school would be permitted to attend the borough school in exchange for south side pupils who would go to Merion.

Limiting of classes is partly responsible for the refusal. It is also felt that many Merionites are opposed to having any but their own sons and daughters within the walls of the beautiful new building on Bowman avenue.

Manual training will be added to the local curriculum next year. A manual training teacher will be employed and Principal Wilson, with the Instruction Committee, is working on equipment details.

The secretary and treasurer were instructed to proceed with the compilation of a budget for the coming year. This will be voted on and the tax rate for 1926 decided on at the next meeting. It is expected that the new budget will enable the present tax rate to be maintained.

The Property Committee is working on plans to improve the school property. The bank around the play field will be smoothed out and vines and shrubbery planted.

Bids will be asked for the construction of two or three flights of cement steps. One will be a broad entrance at Narberth and Sabine avenues and the other will be placed at the bank along Sabine avenue, permitting of an approach to the school from that end of the property without scaling a muddy precipice.

DR. POTTER TO SPEAK

There will be a meeting held in the Bryn Mawr School House, on Bryn Mawr avenue, Bryn Mawr, on Wednesday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock, at which Mrs. John C. Miller, State Chairman of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters, will tell you what took place at the Candidates' Luncheon, held at 12.30 noon on the same date, at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia.

Buy across the Counter

WHEN you buy across the counter in the stores of this town, you are using good business judgment. Why? There are many reasons, but one of the most important is this:

You can buy what you want at the price you wish to pay! You are not obliged to accept "something just as good," because you are in a position to compare values and make your own selections.

When you trade at home you are helping your friends to help you! And there is no finer thing in life than neighborly co-operation. It always pays—in happiness and satisfaction as well as dollars and cents.

COTTER'S MARKET

"GOIN' TO GRANDMA'S?"

Coming over to Philadelphia on the ferry-boat a few mornings ago, there was a young Mother and two little boys, probably five and six years of age. The little fellows were having the time of their lives, running and prancing about the boat, climbing on the gates, laughing and playing and having a healthy, hearty good time in general. When someone said to the older boy, "You're having a good time," the quick reply was "Goin' to Grandma's." There was, to the writer's mind a greater eulogy to the Grandmother in these few words than would fill a book, for the joyous anticipation of these two little boys pictured "Grandma's" as a place where Pies, Cakes, Candies and Goodies of all kinds would be found and where probably Cows, Horses and maybe Pigs and Chickens might be seen and enjoyed, but whatever it may have been, "Grandma's" was undoubtedly a place, above all others, where there was contentment, freedom from restraint, and which just met these boys' ideas of pleasure.

Now, you must know the rest of this story without our telling it. It is the same old story that we have been telling you for years, namely, about the place which we are striving to make like "Grandma's" is to those little boys, the place where you may secure the best of everything in the grocery line with the least restraint and the most freedom, where the service is like "Grandma's"—spontaneous and voluntary—where the "Pies" are the best and the "Cakes" are the largest and where, after one visit, with an order or without, you look forward to a pleasurable return at the earliest possible moment. It is exactly like the realities of "Goin' to Grandma's" that we are constantly endeavoring to make our House and our business relations with its customers and, how we are succeeding along this line is best told by the frequency of your visits and your expressions of pleasurable and profitable business relations.

A HUMAN BOOK FOR HUMAN BEINGS

"Why We Behave Like Human Beings" Popular at Library.

"A book about ourselves which we can cheerfully recommend," is the way in which James Harvey Robinson sums up his endorsement of "Why We Behave Like Human Beings," written by George A. Dorsey, Ph. D., LL. D.

Dr. Dorsey says that human beings are the most interesting objects of study in the world and that their business of getting along with themselves and one another is the only really important problem. He states that the reason why this business drags is because human beings do not know where they come from, how they get here, what they bring with them, what they do with it, and what they could do if they stopped quarreling among themselves and used their brains to solve their common problems.

The following quotations from the book will show why it has proved interesting and entertaining to so many people.

"We do not use the brains we have. Presumably we no more get the maximum service out of our brains than we do out of our motor mechanism."

"The body is simply the brain's servant. Treat the body right of course: no brain can function well without good service. But why worry more about the looks, color and clothes of the servant than the service it performs?"

"Between two beings so complex and so diverse as man and woman, the whole of life is not too long for them to know one another well and to learn to love one another worthily."

"We may be as old as our arteries—and so no good for digging a sewer; but we are also as young as our brains—and so good where brains are needed."

"When human society starts to practice the Golden Rule it will lay a foundation for civilization which no flood of passion can shake."

"A good, honest, hard-headed character is a function of the home. If the proper seed is sown there and properly nourished for a few years, it will not be easy for that plant to be uprooted."

"What is vitally important is that I live as an honest human being who acknowledges responsibilities and obligations, who plays the game like a thoroughbred, who does not whine, and does not cheat, and who believes that there is room in this world for many creeds, but for only one religion."

The book is not intended to treat exhaustively of a philosophy of life, but in its story of the development of the human race it offers such thought-provoking phrases as are given above, and is in every way most entertaining.

RESOLUTION

The following is an extract from the minutes of the Recreation Board of the Borough of Narberth, meeting of March 9, 1926:

"The Recreation Board of the Borough of Narberth desires to record its deep sorrow at the death of its president, Mr. Augustus J. Loos.

"Although ill at the time and desiring to relinquish cares, Mr. Loos accepted the presidency of this board in March, 1925 with a specific object, to have the grading of the playground completed and a suitable building erected to house the Public Library and to provide for other civic needs. Mainly through his efforts this work was accomplished. Such was his last public service.

"Interested in all movements for the benefit and betterment of Narberth, Mr. Loos was always generous with his personal and financial support. The Borough has lost its highest type citizen. This Board has lost its loved and respected president.

"We desire to extend our sincere sympathy to his family.

"It is directed that this minute be entered on the record of the Recreation Board of the Borough of Narberth and that a copy of it be forwarded to the family of Mr. Loos."
